

View from the Pulpit, Old Meeting House (1773)
Sandown, New Hampshire, 2007. Paul Wainwright

A Space for Faith

Colonial Meetinghouses of New England

Sunday, February 26, 2012
First Church of Christ Unitarian
Lancaster, Mass.
2:30 PM Free Program
4:00 PM Artist Reception

PAUL WAINWRIGHT is a landscape and architectural photographer who works in a traditional manner utilizing sheet film, a large-format camera and silver gelatin printing. Based in New Hampshire, his work is included in private, corporate, and public collections, including the Boston Public Library and Museum of Fine Art. Wainwright's images reflect an eye for space and light, subtle details, and an keen appreciation of history. Learn more at www.colonialmeetinghouses.com.

2:30 PM – A Space for Faith

Paul Wainwright will share his dramatic collection of black and white photographs that capture the presence and history found in New England meetinghouses. His powerful images uncover hand crafted beauty touched only by time.

4:00 PM – Artist Reception with Paul Wainwright

Meet the artist of a composite portrait of the town landmarks erected by local builders and master carpenters. His award-winning book, A Space for Faith, may be purchased during the artist reception. Refreshments will be served.

Pre-registration recommended

Call 978-365-5570 or email info@thebulfinchfund.org.
Snow date: March 4th 2012

To be held at First Church of Christ Unitarian in Lancaster, Massachusetts, this free program, reception and book signing is organized by The Bulfinch Fund and supported by funds from the Lancaster Cultural Council.

Become a friend of The Bulfinch Church by making a donation on-line or by mail at PO Box 194 Lancaster MA 01523.

WWW.THEBULFINCHFUND.ORG
PO BOX 194 LANCASTER, MA 01523 • 978-365-5570

